CAST

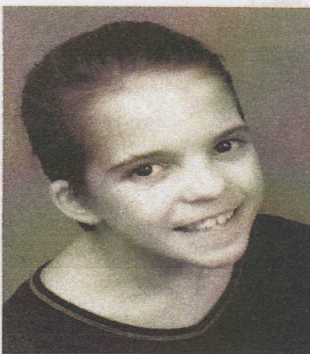

Finnegan—Thatcher Griffith—Thatcher James Griffith is a Sophomore at Collinsville High School. His activities include tennis, robotics, piano, and youth group. He has acted in a variety of plays and musicals through his church. His future plans are to attend Oklahoma State University. As a fan of the original Sherlock Holmes stories, Thatcher is excited to be a part of The Baker Street Irregulars.

Alaska-Cheyenne Gosnell—Cheyenne Gosnell has always had an interest in stage acting but only recently has started pursuing that small dream. Cheyenne was previously in Jingle Bell Jury and Silver's Secret at the Owasso 8th grade center. She is so excited to work with such an amazing cast and has had tons of fun with everyone involved to make this wonderful production! This is Cheyenne's first time working with OCTC but she hopes that it will not be her last!

Pheobe— Alyssa Combs—Alyssa Combs is thrilled to have the opportunity to play Phoebe in Baker Street Irregulars! This is her second play with OCTC, the first being 'The Craving' playing the character Tori. She's a sophomore at Owasso High-School and has taken theater for 3 years now, not including many church plays. Alyssa hopes you enjoy the show!

Quinn—Stephanie Ingersoll—Bella Ingersoll is thrilled to join Owasso Community Theatre for their production of Baker Street Irregulars in the role of Quinn. She is an 11-year old homeschool student, who loves theatre. A few of her favorite roles have been Little Girl in "Ragtime", Billy in "Assassins", and Young Nanyehi in "Nanyehi". Her next role will be with American Theatre Company for their production of "Sunday in the Park with George" as Louise. Bella wishes to thank Ms. Kay Neldon and the staff and cast of Baker Street Irregulars for the opportunity to share the stage with them, doing what she loves.

Wiggins—Lucas Y Booth—Lucas has been cast in one Owasso Community Theatre Company production before, as Prince Charming in The (Almost) Totally True Story of Hansel and Gretel. After performing in The Crucible at The Clark Youth Theatre in Tulsa he is now very excited to be in another production with the Owasso Community Theatre as Wiggins in the Baker Street Irregulars.

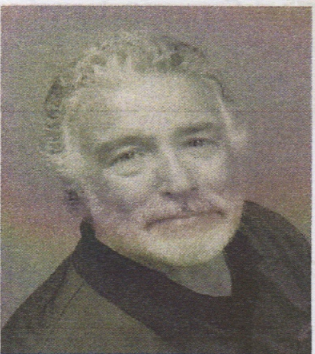

Lestrade—Justin Searcy—Justin has been in a number of ad campaigns over the last couple years for Brookside Studios. He is also an actor/director for Flatliner Productions and has produced a number of shorts under that moniker. This is his first theater performance and he is very excited to share this experience with all the talented cast and crew working on this production under OCTC.

Officer Wilkes—Tom Aurillo—Tom is honored to be in his third production with OCTC. His favorite roll of all has been husband of Penni for the thirty three years and father of Sara, Amy and Antonia. Tom would like to thank all the many hard working people from OCTC.

Officer Pelham—Kristal Norris—Kristal is thrilled to be in her third production with OCT. She was most recently seen as Streptococcus in the OCT's production of The (Almost) Totally True Story of Hansel and Gretel. Some of her stage credits include Honk!, Here's Love, Oliver Twist, Beauty and the Beast, Spirit, The Scarlett Letter, Catholic School Girls, and Annie. The theatre is Kristal's happy place. She is excited to be doing this show with her niece Kate and nephew Jack. A huge thank you goes out to her husband Tim, son Owen and the Walkers, all of you make it possible to enjoy the theatre.

Wainwright—Alton Goerlitz—Alton is thrilled to be a part of his first production with the Owasso Community Theater. While in high school, he was active in the National Thespian Society. He has had meaningful roles in musicals such as "MAME", "HELLO DOLLY" and "ANYTHING GOES". Not to mention plays conducted by the Drama Department. He has a passion for cycling and has finished 7 Tulsa Tough's and numerous other 100 mile rides. He hopes everyone enjoys the work and commitment the other cast members have made to the Owasso Community Theaters presentation of Baker Street Irregulars.

Elza—Stephanie Cook—Stephanie began performing onstage at the young age of five and has loved theatre ever since. She has appeared in productions of The Sound of Music, Annie Get Your Gun, and more, as well as played the titular role of Annie Sullivan in The Miracle Worker. Stephanie also toured the United States as a member of an acting ensemble with Women of Faith. Her dream role is Christine Daae from Phantom of the Opera. Stephanie spoke of her love of the theatre: "Theatre is such a moving experience for me. It's incredible to witness what human beings can create together. The music, the lights, the costumes, the choreography; so many people working for months, pouring all they have into these productions. And from that collaboration, they create something beautiful." Stephanie has three children and is a proud Air Force wife. Keep your eyes peeled for Stephanie in the 2019 film "The Mustard Seed," a faith-based film in which she appears as an extra.

Jingles—Kira Brown -Kira loves performing. She has been Adrianna in the Comedy of Errors, The Sheriff of Nottingham in Robin Hood, Baptista in The Taming of the Shrew, and Goldilocks in Hansel and Gretel. This is her third show with OCTC and she's excited for you to see it. She loves fun activities with her family and friends. Kira is a sophomore and excited to be in this production.

Crank—Draven St. George—Draven is thrilled to get to be in his second production with OCTC, his first production being Minion in The Craving. He is a sophomore at Owasso High School and has performed in the ensemble for The Great Gatsby. He hopes you have a wonderful time seeing Baker Street Irregulars!

Piper—Alyssa Goodnight—Alyssa is a 17 year old Classical Conversations' student who just returned from a mission trip to Uganda where she lead a children's drama class. She has participated in several OCTC productions, as well as productions at Spotlight Children's Theater. She is an aspiring voice actor and loves to create various kinds of art for her blog. In her spare time, she plays the piano and reads.

Fess—Cenaka—Cenaka started theatre when he was in 6th grade. He is now in 10th grade and can't wait to do this. He will try his best to do his part. He hopes everyone likes the play. Thank you.

Digger—Emily Stoughton—Emily is a second year culinary student at Tulsa Tech Owasso where she is a member of The National Technical Honor Society. Last year she helped the adult team bring home the Culinary Cup for ProStart Oklahoma. When she's not cooking, she enjoys pampering her pets, being with her family and friends, and acting. She is excited to be in her second performance with OCTC. She had such a grand time in "You Can't Get There From Here," that she decided she wanted more. Her love for acting has pushed her to organize plays and dramas for her church in Collinsville. She hopes you enjoy solving the mystery in the circus.

Zolda—Kessiah Neff -Once upon a time there lived a princess named Kessiah Neff (Zolda) who dreamed of a life in showbiz. After navigating her way through the enchanted RSU forest she emerged with a sense of pride and a Bachelor's in Communication. She has since traveled wide, but not far, performing in plays with local theater troupes: Tulsa University, Heller Theater Company, the RSU Theater Program, and Owasso Community Theater. She hopes to live happily ever after on the Broadway stage, the silver screen, television, radio, and cartoons.

Hawker—Madron Townsend -She has worked in numerous productions for her church, but this is her first ever time acting with the Owasso Community Theatre Company. She is a sophomore this year and hopes to be in more Community theatre productions in the future. She hopes you enjoy the show, and to never stop believing in the impossible!

Charity—Kassidy Kassidy is 16 years old and lives in Broken Arrow—but the drive doesn't stop her from hanging out with her friends at the OCTC. She performed in her first show with the Owasso Theatre when she was 12 and hasn't been able to stay away since. When she's not working, studying, or telling cheesy jokes, she likes to get outside and get moving. She hopes you have as much fun watching the show as she does performing!

Tara—Zoey Garrett—Zoey is so excited to be in this production! She is a fourth grader at Bailey Elementary. This is her second production with OCTC. She played the part of Pork Chop in "The (Almost) Totally True Story of Hansel and Gretel". She is glad to be working with this new cast. She really can't wait!

Charity—Taliyah Pena—Taliyah is really excited to be apart of her first production with the Owasso Community Theater. She's in the 6th grade at Will Rogers Junior High & is currently in choir but anxious to be in 8th, so she can finally take drama. Her dreams are to become an actress or tv news reporter. She loves to dance & wants to visit London one day. Taliyah hopes everyone enjoys the play tonight!

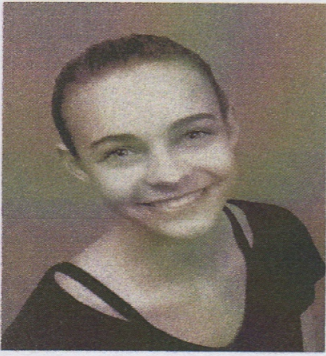

Roustabout—Jack Walker—Jack is loving his first time with OCT. Aside from school shows this is his first stage production. When not cleaning up after the circus performers Jack enjoys playing the piano and percussion. He loves to read and play with his siblings. Jack is excited to be doing this show with his Aunt Kristal and sister, Kate. He is looking forward to many more productions in the future. He sends a huge thank you and hugs to his parents for always supporting him.

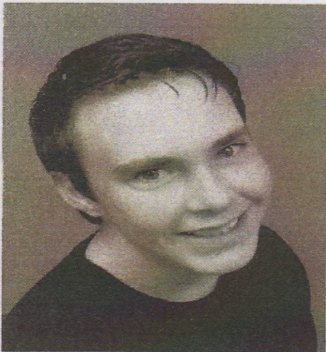

Roustabout—Claire Hood—Claire is a 12 year old girl from Owasso who loves acting. Claire was in the Robson PAC performance of ANNIE in 2017. Claire enjoys performing in The Sequoya Eagles Choir. Claire writes, directs, acts and records short films for her family and friends to enjoy.

Roustabout—Micah Sherman—Micah is excited to be a Roustabout in her first production with the Owasso Community Theater. She attends the Owasso 7th Grade Center. She was in several school plays prior to moving from Louisiana. She is excited for the opportunity to continue acting in Oklahoma with OCTC.

Roustabout—Kate Walker—Kate is in her first production with OCT. She takes a drama class at the 7th grade center. Kate is not a stranger to the stage. She has been performing ballet since she was four. She has been in performances of The Nutcracker and Sleeping Beauty. Kate enjoys playing the flute, dance lessons, writing scripts, and creating art projects. Kate is excited to be doing this show with her brother Jack and her Aunt Kristal. Thank you to her parents for encouraging her to try new things and reach for the stars.

Roustabout—Ethan Bass—Ethan is an eight grader at the Owasso Eighth Grade Center. He has played a pirate in the Missoula Children's Theatre Production of "Black Beard Pirate". He also played Hansel in the OCTC's production of "The (Almost) Totally True Story of Hansel and Gretel". He is looking forward to being part of another production with OCTC.

Roustabout—Darci Roberts—Darci is a 5th grader at Stone Canyon Elementary. She has been in Encore's production of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. She played Ethel in Spotlight Children's Theater's production of Jolly Roger and the Pirate Queen. She has been involved with a week long musical drama "Sing" with Camp Explore. She participated as the character Tamatoa in the musical production of "Moana" with Midtown School of Performing Arts. She is excited to be a part of her hometown's theater production.

CREW

Kay Neldon (Director) has participated in theatre since her stage debut at age 5. For several years, she regularly performed in The Drunkard at Tulsa's Spotlight Theatre. She made her OCTC onstage debut in 2006, and has been active onstage, backstage, and in administration since that time. Kay previously directed OCTC's Sherlock Holmes (2014) and The (Almost) Totally True Story of Hansel & Gretel (2017). She is eternally grateful for the love, patience, and support of her husband Mike and their daughter Emily and son Brian. Kay is thankful for all of the hard (but fun) work of many people coming together to present our gift to you - The Baker Street Irregulars. Enjoy!
